

"Nilva Fina Pillan" contest for unpublished origami models

The representation of a fairy tale or a fable

Centro Diffusione Origami is pleased to announce the contest for unpublished origami models that will be held during the XXXV CDO Congress 2017 and will have as theme "The representation of a fairy tale or a fable."

The competition is open to new and original models that represent one or more recognizable elements of a fairy tale or a fable.

For recognizable elements, by way of example, this may mean characters, animals, situations, moments and particular environments clearly attributable to the fairy tale or fable chosen by the author.

R U L E S

1. The competition is open to all CDO members, who can send models via mail within the specified date, or bring them in person at the 35th Congress.
2. The models exhibition will be held during the XXXV Congress and all participants will vote.
3. The sheet starting size is free.
4. Are admitted single sheet models, compounds or modular.
5. For each individual participant or group is allowed the presentation of a maximum of 3 works.
6. It is prohibited the use of glue and/or cuts for the realization of the model or part of it.
7. Each model presented must be accompanied by a standard card with the name of the tale or fable as well as various other data related to the work itself and, if necessary, even a brief summary of the history of maximum 10 lines.
8. It's forbidden to teach the models presented in the competition during the conference, to avoid influencing the vote.
9. Models must be original, not previously published and accompanied by the relevant diagrams, also in the form of sketch, provided understandable.

10. Diagrams of the models will be published in the CDO magazines. Participants of the contest must authorize the consultation of the diagrams during the conference and the subsequent publication. Copyrights will remain always property of the author.
11. The models exhibited in the competition will not be gave back and will remain available to the " models deposit " of CDO and could be used for exhibitions.
12. Models can be mailed to the address below to the organizing committee no later than November 30, 2017, or hand-delivered directly to Congress.
13. Models not congruent with present rules shall be excluded from voting. Complaints may be submitted until the moment of the voting.

P R I Z E S

- First prize: a voucher for free participation in the 2018 conference.
- Second prize: a voucher worth € 100,00 spendable at the market for the next meeting.
- Third prize: a voucher worth € 75.00 spendable at the market for the next meeting.

Prizes are offered by Pillan family. The award ceremony and the awards will take place during the Conference.

For information or questions regarding the contest, please contact:

Francesco Decio francesco.decio@alice.it

Send your model via mail at the address:

Casella postale 28
27011 Belgioioso (PV) - ITALY
<http://www.origami-cdo.it>