

The 39th CDO Convention will be held online using the videoconference platform Zoom, on the 12-13-14 November 2021. Participation to the convention is free for CDO members. For non-members the cost is € 10.00. Registration prior to the event is required, by Monday 8th November 2021 at the latest.

The meetings will be held in videoconference following the timetable of the folding workshops shown below.

The meetings will be recorded and will be made available afterwards.

Information

Official hashtag for sharing on social media: #origamicdo2021

Shop: it will be possible to buy paper and origami books online; during the days of the Convention discounts on books and paper will be offered.

Contest "Say it with an origami": see rules.

Members Meeting: the habitual Members meeting will not take place.

Elections for the renewal of the Board: the 2021 elections to renew the Board will not be held. The Board makes itself available to extend its mandate by one year, in the hope that the elections can take place regularly during the 2022 Convention.

Accountability check with the auditors: the meeting with the auditors for the annual check of the CDO accounts will be held in videoconference.

Registration to the Convention

Participation to the Convention is free for all CDO members, while for non-members it will cost € 10.00.

Everybody will have to register to the Convention via an online form, to enable the organizers to plan the events.

<https://www.origami-cdo.it/cdo/convegno/>

The payment of the registration quota can be done by bank transfer or credit card using the coordinates provided at the following webpage:

<https://www.origami-cdo.it/areasoci/pagamenti/>

The CDO digital annual membership is 25 Euro (digital) and it allows to participate to the Convention, to download the publications, to buy paper and books at the shop and to access the archives of the members' area.

The registration or renewal made by 1 November 2021 will be valid for 2021 and allows you to participate for free in the Convention, download or receive all the magazines published in 2021 and be able to make purchases of paper and origami books in the CDO shop, in time for the Conference.

The registration or renewal made after 1 November 2021 will be valid for 2022, allows you to participate for free in the Conference and will also be valid for the entire year 2022.

How to take part at the meetings

The folding workshops of the 2020 Convention use the platform Zoom (<https://zoom.us/>) to collaborate in videoconference. To take part in these, a computer or a smartphone will be needed.

You will receive a few days in advance an invitation email with the link to log into the meeting.
